

Contents

- 1 Introduction and Acknowledgments • 9
David Harmon
- 2 Tort Liability in National Parks and How NPS Tracks, Manages, and Responds to Tortious Incidents • 11
Scott Breen
- 3 Proposing New Barrens National Natural Landmarks • 17
Mary C. Brickle, Todd R. Lookingbill, and Katharina A.M. Engelhardt
- 4 Expanding Parks and Reducing Human Numbers:
A Superior Alternative to Embracing the Anthropocene Era • 25
Philip Cafaro
- 5 Biosphere Reserves: A New Look at Relevance to Meet Today's Challenges • 31
Vernon (Tom) Gilbert
- 6 Time for a Resurrection of Biosphere Reserves? • 35
Lawrence S. Hamilton
- 7 The Accokeek Foundation's Piscataway Cultural Landscape Initiative • 41
Lisa Hayes
- 8 Spiritual Outcomes of Park Experience:
A Synthesis of Recent Social Science Research • 45
Paul Heintzman
- 9 Protecting Historical Heritage:
The Commemorative Integrity Evaluation Program at
Parks Canada's National Historic Sites • 53
Patricia E. Kell
- 10 Comanaging Parks with Aboriginal Communities:
Improving Outcomes for Conservation and Cultural Heritage • 61
Greg Leaman
- 11 Protected Areas on Private Land—
Shaping the Future of the Park System in Australia • 69
Greg Leaman and Clare Nicolson

- 12 South Australia's NatureLinks Program:
Successfully Integrating Protected Areas into Landscape Scale Conservation • 77
Greg Leaman and Clare Nicolson
- 13 Using Research into the Human Dimensions of Natural Resource Management to Enhance Science-Informed Decisions • 87
Kirsten Leong, Carena J. van Riper, Katherine McComas, Robert E. Manning, Joe McCarter, and Jim Gramann
- 14 Unpaid Protectors: Volunteerism and the Diminishing Role of Federal Responsibility in the National Park Service • 95
Dylan Lewis
- 15 Connecting People to Parks through Outdoor Play • 101
Fran Mainella and Carly Summers
- 16 Mendocino Woodlands: Leveraging Resources Effectively to Complete Cultural Landscape
Projects for Historic Sites • 105
Laurie Matthews
- 17 Dissecting Credibility: Components of Credibility for Science/Resource Management
Professionals • 109
Jerry M. Mitchell, Christie Denzel Anastasia, Ben Bobowski, and Giselle Mora-Bourgeois
- 18 Exploring Opportunities for Enhancing Relevancy and Sustainability through Cultural Landscape Conservation • 115
Nora Mitchell, Brenda Barrett, and Jessica Brown, with contributions from Stephanie Toothman, Susan Dolan, Tim Badman, and Terence Hay-Edie
- 19 Telling Stories of Nature and Humans in Midwest National Park Units • 121
Robert Pahre
- 20 Teaching the Parks • 127
Robert Pahre and Carie Steele
- 21 Can Organizations Learn? Exploring a Shift from Conflict to Collaboration • 135
Nelly Robles García and Jack Corbett
- 22 Preparing the Next Generation of Protected Area Employees:
Opportunities for Students, Agencies and Universities • 141
Ryan L. Sharp and Nancy Doucette
- 23 Establishing the Science Foundation to Sustain High-elevation Five-needle Pine Forests
Threatened by Novel Interacting Stresses in Four Western National Parks • 147
A.W. Schoettle, Jeff Connor, John Mack, Phyllis Pineda Bovin, Jen Beck, Gretchen Baker, R.A. Sniezko, and K.S. Burns

- 24 Reconciling Competing Visions in New Deal Parks:
Natural Conservation, Historic Preservation, and Recreational Development • 157
Angela Sirna
- 25 Connecting Urban Populations to Protected Areas • 163
Pam Veinotte
- 26 The International Ranger Federation:
Uniting Rangers to Protect the World's Treasures • 171
Meg Weesner
- 27 National Parks and Landscape Conservation • 173
Mark Wenzler