

CASUAL WALKING DISTANCE RESTAURANTS

- THE RESTAURANT AT PSFS
Located in the Lobby (ext. 7300)
Our Swanky yet "Unpretentious" New American Restaurant offers the freshest ingredients and the finest flavors that Philadelphia has to offer. Available for Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner so no need to leave the hotel.
- SOTTO
Broad & Locust Sts. (215) 546-6800
Seafood: This Avenue of the Arts newcomer is a welcome addition. This food & service are of equal stature. Go for dinner or just a cocktail, the Bar atmosphere is fabulous.
- POMPEII
Broad & Sansom Sts. (215) 735-8400
Regional Italian: Expect gusty Italian dishes made with passionate creativity, along with not-to-be-believed desserts, all served by handsome, earnest neighborhood Joes. The dining room has high ceilings and Roman artwork that add a welcoming touch.
- PASION!
211 S. 15th Street (215) 875-9895
Neuvo-Latin: This Center City South American is one of the city's hottest newcomers in every sense of the word; foods are packing the Seviche Bar and the richly appointed dining room where they're rewarded with bold tastes and superior presentations
- GIRASOLE
1305 Locust Street (215) 985-4659
italian: Affordably delicious, this restaurant is Philadelphia's "sunniest spot for dining."
- UPSTAIRS AT VARALLI
1345 Locust Street (215) 546-4200
Italian: Known for their premier Italian trattoria over-looking the everlasting Avenue of the Arts.
- RUTH'S CHRIS STEAKHOUSE
260 S. Broad St. (215) 790-1515
Steak / American: This Center City Institution is known for their generous portions of excellent steaks. The staff is courteous and attentive.

- IL PORTICO
1519 Walnut St. (215) 587-7000
Northern Italian: This elegant "Beautiful" restaurant row Italian has tuxedoed waiters who are serious about their food. They deliver superior, melt in your mouth dishes.
- OPUS 251
251 S. 18th St. (215) 735-6787
New American: This innovative country American with Asian accents in the art alliance off Rittenhouse Square serves exquisitely prepared food and extraordinary service. Highly recommended for those on an expense account, expensive.
- CIBOULETTE
200 S. Broad St. (215) 790-1210
French: This heavenly French in the Bellevue Hotel lives up to its reputation. The appetizer portion concept allows for a taste of many wonderful dishes. It's the perfect place for an intimate dinner.
- MORTON'S OF CHICAGO
1411 Walnut St. (215) 557-0724
American / Steakhouse: This well-known steakhouse is as good as it gets when it comes to service and food. The atmosphere is quiet enough for business or pleasure. They have an excellent selection of cigars if the mood strikes you.
- SUSANNA FOO
1512 Walnut St. (215) 545-2666
Chinese / French: The blending of Asian and French cuisines is marriage made in heaven at this restaurant row favorite. It's easily No. 1 in its genre with fine and attentive service.
- LA FAMIGLIA
8 South Front St. (215) 922-2803
Italian: An amazing wine list, fabulous food, wonderful charm and professional service make this old city Italian one of the best special occasion spots in town. You'll be impressed by their award-winning wine cellar.

- JOSEPH POON
1002 Arch St. (215) 928-9333
Asian Fusion: This Asian fusion in Chinatown serves up large portions by a sweet staff. Chef / Owner Joseph Poon has been called "The official mayor of Chinatown", mostly likely because of his friendly & spirited nature. He also offers free cooking lessons on Saturdays.
- CARIBOU CAFÉ
1126 Walnut St. (215) 625-9535
French: This cozy, hip Center City French Bistro is like being in Paris. Complete with stylish food, magnificent desserts, artsy décor and a great selection of beers. A good choice for lunch or pre-theater.
- GENJI
1720 Sansom St. (215) 564-1720
Japanese / Sushi: The ultra-fresh, excellent sushi and wide variety of Japanese dishes at this center city "cool clean" restaurant will tempt you through and through.
- PORTOFINO
1227 Walnut St. (215) 923-8208
Italian: Twenty-five years of excellence, two blocks from the Convention Center.
- TOTO
1407 Locust St. (215) 546-2000
Elegant, contemporary Italian restaurant with open kitchen and beautiful murals.
- Portofino
1227 Walnut St. (215) 923-8208
Twenty-five years of excellence, two blocks from the Convention Center.

FINE DINING WALKING RESTAURANTS

- STRIPED BASS
1500 Walnut St. (215) 732-4444
Seafood: One of Philly's favorites, this Center City "Power Heavy" Destination lives up to it's reputation, and then some. The atmosphere is never dull especially now that several movies have been filmed here. (Sixth Sense). The only strictly seafood restaurant in Philadelphia.